

Dear fellow students,

Enjoy the benefits of being a Cologne Business School graduate by becoming a member of the CBS-Alumni e.V. This exclusive club is open to anybody who do not want their bachelor degree/ the graduation ceremony to be the end of their much-loved CBS connection. We can give you many good reasons why the legacy should continue.

Social networks have always been a critical factor in the establishment of successful careers, their members profiting from mutual advancement and shared interests. As time goes by and more and more CBS graduates leave to explore the business world, their common CBS experience becomes a basis which can lay the foundations to create new career opportunities. It does not matter whether you are searching for practical experience, job opportunities, business partners or simply a way to stay in touch, the CBS-Alumni e.V. should be the starting point.

By developing strong relationships to other CBS graduates and maintaining those already well established with your former fellow students and the business school of your choice, you will discover that the CBS is more than a casual place to study - it is a philosophy, a decision for life.

It is up to you to benefit from your studies beyond the three years of campus life. Join and find out more about life after the CBS.
